Anointed for Business by Ed Silvano is a good read for anyone in the marketplace whether as an employee or employer. It answers the question that most believers struggle with but never really knew how to express it. Many religious leaders and institutions for years have had a tendency to view ministry and the marketplace as separate entities.

Book Review: Anointed for Business by Ed Silvano

Best-Selling Author CBN.com – In this article from his book Anointed for Business Ed Silvano says too many people ignore marketplace ministry. The marketplace – the combination of business, education and government – is to a metropolis what the heart is to the human body. Through these three arteries flows the life of a city.
