Where or When - Kindle edition by Shreve, Anita ...

After an early chapter that dwells too long on the details of a lead character's financial problems, "Where or When" picks up the pace and becomes a real page-turner. Shreve is very good at plotting, pacing, building tension and writing dramatic climaxes. She's not always so good at complex or nuanced characterizations.

Anita Shreve gives each of them, Sian and Charles, different voices, a different prose. The prose of the overall book is, as always with her, expressive, 'clean', no big words but simple, effortless, often matter-of-fact writing, which suits this story so well. I found it un-put-downable and it left me with much food for thought about life, love ...
